

Warning Against Trespass and Communications

Date: ____/____/____

To: _____,

By receipt of this letter, you are hereby warned that you have no right, either expressed or implied in any form to enter upon or to remain in any place upon which this notice of trespass is given, at any time whatsoever, and for whatever purpose.

Should you not adhere to this notice in this matter, I will have no choice but to pursue remedies that are available to me, including criminal prosecution for Defiant Trespass according to Pennsylvania Crimes Code Section 3503.

You are specifically advised that you are not licensed or privileged to enter or remain upon property located at

_____.

I also request no contact with you whatsoever by any type of communication including but not limited to telephone, cell phone, text messages, electronic mail, postal mail, letters, notes, mail, etc, or additional charges may be filed against you.

You have been warned; being so advised, govern yourself accordingly.

Sincerely,
